a) Off-market inter-se transfer transactions between Insiders who were in possession of the same UPSI, without breaching the Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided such UPSI was not obtained through the manner specified under Clause 4(d);

Further, such transactions shall be reported by the Insider to the Company within two working days and Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchanges within two working days from receipt of the disclosure of from becoming aware of such information.

b) Transactions that are carried out through block-deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of UPSI, without being in breach of Regulation 3 of SEBI PIT Regulations and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided such UPSI was not obtained through the manner specified under Clause 4(d);

c) Transaction that is carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction;

d) Transaction that is undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations;

e) Transaction carried out by non-individual insider, where the individuals who were in possession of UPSI were different from the individuals taking the trading decision and the decision-making individuals were not in possession of UPSI.

f) Trades are pursuant to a Trading Plan set up in accordance with this Code.

ii) When the Trading Window of the Company is closed.

For further details in relation to the Trading Window please see sub clause (b) of Clause 6.

b) Designated Persons shall be governed by this Code for dealing in securities.

Designated Persons may deal in the shares of the Company subject to compliance with the following process:

(i) Trading Window

The Trading Window shall be closed during the time price sensitive information is unpublished. Trading Restriction starts from end of the quarter till 48 hours after the announcement of financial results.

All Designated Persons shall conduct all their dealings in the Securities only when the Trading Window is open and no Designated Person shall deal in the Securities during the period when the Trading Window is closed or during any other period as may be specified by the Compliance Officer from time to time.

The Trading Window shall also be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of UPSI.

Additionally, the Trading Window shall be closed at other times when the price sensitive information remains unpublished, in particular for Designated Persons or class of Designated Persons as may be ascertained by the Compliance Officer.

The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the compliance officer taking into account various factors including the UPSI in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available.

The trading window restrictions shall not apply in respect of:

(i) Off-market inter-se transfer transactions between Insiders who were in possession of the same UPSI, without breaching the Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided such UPSI was not obtained through the manner specified under Clause 4(d);

(ii) Transactions that are carried out through block-deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of UPSI, without breaching the Code and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided such UPSI was not obtained through the manner specified under Clause 4(d);

(vii) Transactions which are undertaken in accordance with the respective regulations made by the SEBI such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to the rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buyback offer, open offer, delisting offer.

(ii) Pre-Clearance of Trade

Designated Persons who wish to trade in the Company's Securities, when the trading window is open, shall intimate the intention to trade in the Company's Securities in the format as may be specified by SEBI time to time and shall pre-clear the trade from the Compliance Officer, prior to undertaking the transaction.

Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the Designated Person applying for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

Designated Person shall execute pre-cleared trade within 7 (seven) trading days from approval and shall report his trade details to Compliance Officer in in the format as may be specified by SEBI time to time within 2 (two) trading days from the trade. In case of nontrading, Designated Person shall report his decision of nontrading along with reasons to Compliance Officer in the format as may be specified by SEBI time to time.

Designated Person who do not complete the transaction within 7 days of pre-clearance shall seek fresh pre-clearance for the transaction. Transactions pre-cleared by Designated Person shall be reported by the Compliance Officer to the Audit Committee.

The preclearance of trade shall not be required if the trade has been executed as per the trading plan approved by the Compliance Officer.

Designated Persons in possession of UPSI are not eligible to apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade even if trading window is open.

It is the responsibility of the Designated Person to disclose such trading to the Compliance Officer within the stipulated timeline. The reporting to the Stock Exchange shall be made within two trading days from the date of receipt of such information.

(iii) Restriction on Opposite Transactions

Designated Persons are restricted from entering into opposite transactions i.e., sell or buy any number of shares during next six months following the prior transaction.

Explanation: if a Designated Person has bought shares of the company, he can continue to buy the shares (when the Trading Window is open and subject to Pre-clearance) but cannot sell any number of shares for a period of 6 months from the last date when he bought the shares.

Similarly, if he sells the shares of the company, he can continue to sell any number of shares but cannot buy any shares for a period of 6 months from the last date when he sold the shares.

In case of personal emergency, the 6 months holding period may be waived by the Compliance Officer after recording in writing the reasons in this regard.

Notwithstanding the above, should the Designated Persons execute an opposite transaction, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of the restrictions set out above, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.

However, the above mentioned restrictions shall not be applicable to trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.
